

Choosing an SSDI Representative

1. Do you specialize in representing people who need to get Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI)?	Yes. Allsup has helped more than 150,000 people nationwide receive their SSDI benefits.
2. Will you represent me through the entire SSDI process – from the initial application through appeals?	On average, we get more people through faster, including at the application and hearing levels.
3. Do you have experience working with my disability, and are you knowledgeable about the SSA's specific Disability Impairment Criteria?	Yes. For more than 25 years we have helped tens of thousands nationwide with a wide variety of disabilities.
4. Will you help me complete the necessary paperwork, including the initial application, Activities of Daily Living questionnaire and requests for an appeal?	Yes. Allsup will work with you to properly complete all of the necessary paperwork.
5. Do you file forms electronically when possible to simplify and expedite the process?	Yes. We file forms electronically whenever possible.
6. Will you make sure forms and appeals are filed in a timely way? How will I know?	Yes. Allsup has a well-developed process in place, and we will contact you with updates.
7. Will you contact my doctors and collect or update medical records for my file independently of the SSA?	Yes, and as many times as necessary in order to create the most complete record.
8. How many people will be dedicated to getting my claim approved?	Allsup assigns a specialist at each level of the SSDI process, and they are backed by a large team of professionals.
9. Will you regularly query the SSA about my claim to ensure my claim is up-to-date and accurate?	Yes. Whenever we submit documents, we confirm they've been received and included in your file.
10. How will we communicate about my claim and how frequently?	Allsup will update you after every decision and provide you with regular status updates. You also may call us with your questions, and now you can check your claim status online, submit questions and more in our secure online community, Allsup Place®.

11. Will I have to appear at a hearing, and will you prepare me for my hearing?	About 60% of our clients receive on-the-record decisions and do not have to attend a hearing. If a hearing is required, an Allsup expert will thoroughly prepare you and represent you at the hearing.
12. How much do you charge for SSDI representation services?	Allsup's fees are determined by the SSA - typically 25% of your retroactive award, not to exceed $6,000. But you only pay if you receive your award.
13. Do you charge for things other than your representation fee (i.e. travel, copies, medical record collection costs)?	No. Allsup does not charge for any items other than the representation fee.
14. Do you provide assistance with other services and resources for people just like me who have a disability?	Yes. Check out www.allsup.com for valuable and helpful information, as well as other services.
15. How many people who use Allsup get their award?	Allsup has a 98% award rate for those who complete the process with us.
16. Can you get me my award faster?	People who use Allsup usually get their award faster than the SSA average, which could result in a lower fee.
17. Who can tell me what it's like working with Allsup as my representative?	Allsup has a 98% customer satisfaction rating, and you can review real personal stories from people just like you at www.allsup.com.
18. How do I know if I qualify for SSDI and if you can represent me?	Begin by completing a free request for a disability evaluation at www.allsup.com; or call (800) 279-4357.
